

Please consider the eternal objections of the broadcast and entertainment industry to every new innovation (even if it eventually benefits them) from opposing radio ("It will kill vaudeville") to television to video cassettes and now radio digital recording. Please allow consumer choice